Business Operations · Chief of Staff · Cross-Functional Execution

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Business operations and Chief of Staff leader with 10+ years of turning strategy into execution alongside CEOs, COO-level leadership and investors. Experienced in building new business lines from zero: product and operating model, partner negotiations and contracts, brand launch and cross-functional delivery. Former founder & CEO with full P&L ownership. Highly trusted, execution-driven and effective in ambiguous, fast-changing environments.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Business Development Lead

ROOMS – Flexible Workspaces | Apr 2026 – Present

- Lead the launch of a new business line: amenity floors in office towers (conference, events, F&B, wellness and shared services for building tenants).
- Own the initiative end to end: product definition, business and operating model, and launch planning.
- Select operators and lead negotiations, commercial terms and contracts with them.
- Lead branding and marketing for the new brand, and build all the infrastructure required for its launch.
- Lead point of contact for, and direct, the project management firm and designers on a ₪10M+ project.
- Report regularly to senior management and investors.
- In parallel: manage the Events & Hospitality department across all the network's sites (100+ meeting rooms, event and conference halls) including managing the department team.
- Specified and built the department's BI and CRM systems.

Chief of Staff

Israel Next Generation (NGO) | 2024 – 2026

- Strategic partner to the CEO and senior leadership on organizational strategy, prioritization and execution.
- Led cross-organizational initiatives across operations, finance, partnerships and programs, coordinating 100+ staff in a nationwide operation.
- Managed budgets, contracts, donor reporting and Israel–U.S. financial flows across multiple entities and funding sources.
- Central coordination point between the CEO, board, management, donors and external partners.

Founder & CEO

Edna Jaffa – Events, Workshops & Culture Venue | 2019 – 2025

- Built a property and a brand from scratch: a 600 m² multi-use venue in Tel Aviv – initial fundraising, design, licensing, infrastructure and procurement.
- Grew it into a profitable business with ~₪2M annual turnover and a team of 10+; successfully sold in 2025.
- Full P&L ownership: business development, B2B partnerships, pricing, contracts, marketing, sales and CRM. Clients included leading tech companies.
- Led the business through COVID, maintaining engagement and financial viability.

Earlier Experience

- Fundraising Manager, Machane Meshutaf NGO | 2016 – 2018
- Artist Manager & Festival Producer (Freelance) | 2013 – 2018 – managed artists including Mark Eliyahu, Narkis, Akiva and Shai Maestro; produced the End of Summer Festival at the Jerusalem Theatre, Blues in Sderot and Sound Ports in Tel Aviv.
