PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Business development leader with 10+ years of building properties, brands and new products from scratch – from concept, through business model and partners, to launch. Currently Business Development Lead at ROOMS, leading the launch of a new product line of amenity floors in office towers: concept, operators, contracts, branding and launch, in a ₪10M+ project, working with senior management and investors. Previously founded, grew and sold Edna, a profitable 600 m² events venue in Tel Aviv.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Business Development Lead

ROOMS – Flexible Workspaces | Apr 2026 – Present

- Lead business development for a new product line: amenity floors in office towers – conference, events, F&B, wellness and shared-service hubs for building tenants.
- End-to-end ownership from concept to delivery: product definition and business and operating model.
- Select operators (F&B, wellness, content); lead negotiations, commercial terms and contracts with them.
- Lead branding and marketing for the new brand, and build all the infrastructure required for its launch.
- Lead point of contact for, and direct, the project management firm and designers on a ₪10M+ project; report regularly to senior management and investors.
- Lead the first project: an amenity hub in an office tower serving ~5,500 employees.
- In parallel: manage the Events & Hospitality department across all the network's sites (100+ meeting rooms, event and conference halls), including managing the department team.
- Specified and built the department's BI and CRM systems.

Founder & CEO

Edna Jaffa – Culture, Workshops & Events Venue | 2019 – 2025

- Built a property from scratch: a 600 m² multi-use venue in Tel Aviv – initial fundraising, planning and design, licensing, infrastructure and procurement.
- Built a brand from scratch: the Edna brand, identity, culture and reputation – a profitable business, sold in 2025.
- Full P&L ownership, ~₪2M annual turnover; responsible for a team of 10+, vendors and partners.
- Led business development, B2B partnerships, pricing, contracts, marketing and sales for corporate events, seminars, workshops and cultural events; clients included leading tech companies.
- Led the business through COVID while maintaining operations and financial stability.

Chief of Staff

Israel Next Generation (NGO) | 2024 – 2026

- Strategic partner to the CEO and senior leadership; led cross-organizational initiatives, coordinating 100+ staff in a nationwide operation.
- Managed budgets, contracts, donor reporting and Israel–U.S. financial flows.

Earlier Experience

- Fundraising Manager, Machane Meshutaf NGO | 2016 – 2018
- Artist Manager & Festival Producer (Freelance) | 2013 – 2018 – managed artists including Mark Eliyahu, Narkis, Akiva and Shai Maestro; produced the End of Summer Festival at the Jerusalem Theatre, Blues in Sderot and Sound Ports in Tel Aviv.
